The Fourth Sunday in Lent Low Sunday / Thomas Sunday

April 16, 2023

8:00a Low Mass and 10:30a Sung Mass

We welcome all who may be visitors this morning, and we hope you will come again to worship God here with us.

Today is the Second Sunday of Easter as we celebrate the 50-day festal season of Christ's resurrection. In Eastertide we commemorate the resurrection of Jesus from the dead, his triumph over the powers of sin and death, and his 40-day sojourn on earth between his resurrection and ascension. As such, it is also a time of remembering our baptism and renewing our baptismal vows. In the spirit of heightened celebration, extra liturgical "alleluias" are added.

St. Paul's liturgy comes from the Anglican Service Book, a worship book that draws on the best of the 1928 and 1979 Books of Common Prayer. Noted as ASB in the bulletin, you can find copies of this black bound book in your pew rack to follow along as we worship. If kneeling or standing is not possible for you, you may remain seated. And finally, a friendly reminder to please be aware of personal belongings while at church—we recommend you not bring valuables to church and that you never leave your purse or such unattended.
