The First Sunday in Lent

February 26, 2023

8:00a Low Mass and 10:30a Sung Mass

We welcome all who may be visitors this morning, and we hope you will come again to worship God here with us.

Today is the First Sunday in Lent. The church observes the period of Lent as a 40-day preparation for Easter, traditionally marked by special acts of fasting, prayer, and alms-giving. As we remember our need to repent of our sins and receive God's salvation, we omit the Gloria in Excelsis and the Alleluias from the liturgy.

Liturgical Notes

St. Paul's liturgy comes from the Anglican Service Book, a worship book that draws on the best of the 1928 and 1979 Books of Common Prayer. Noted as ASB in the bulletin, you can find copies of this black bound book in your pew rack to follow along as we worship.

If kneeling or standing is not possible for you, you may remain seated. And finally, a friendly reminder to please be aware of personal belongings while at church—we recommend you not bring valuables to church and that you never leave your purse or such unattended.

The Great Litany Sung in Procession

Booklet

Special Note: The Great Litany in the Anglo-Catholic tradition is sung in procession on the First Sunday in Lent and at other times. Today we do this as we start our Lenten journey of reflection, prayer, and preparation, looking toward Christ's resurrection at Easter. When it is sung in procession, the congregation stands for the Litany. It replaces the Opening Hymn, Introit, the Prayers of the People, and the Confession; these are not done twice in the same Mass. At its conclusion, we proceed immediately into the Kyrie Eleison.

Gradual (sit)

Cantor He shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

Tract (stand)

Cantor Whoso dwelleth under the defense of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my stronghold: my God, in him will I trust. For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noisome pestilence. He shall defend thee under his wings: and thou shalt be safe under his feathers. His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler: thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night. Nor for the arrow that flieth by day; for the pestilence that walketh in darkness: nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noonday. A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee. For he shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him up, because he hath known my Name. He shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble. I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

All baptized Christians who have been admitted to Holy Communion, are repentant of their sins, and believe in the real presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament are welcome to receive Communion. Anglicans receive on the tongue or in the right hand palm, and by guiding the chalice to their lips. If you do not intend to receive, you may instead come up for a blessing—simply cross your arms over your chest.
