The Third Sunday in Lent

March 12, 2023

8:00a Low Mass and 10:30a Sung Mass

We welcome all who may be visitors this morning, and we hope you will come again to worship God here with us.

Today is the Third Sunday in Lent. The church observes the period of Lent as a 40-day preparation for Easter, traditionally marked by special acts of fasting, prayer, and alms-giving. As we remember our need to repent of our sins and receive God's salvation, we omit the Gloria in Excelsis and the Alleluias from the liturgy.

Liturgical Notes

St. Paul's liturgy comes from the Anglican Service Book, a worship book that draws on the best of the 1928 and 1979 Books of Common Prayer. Noted as ASB in the bulletin, you can find copies of this black bound book in your pew rack to follow along as we worship.

If kneeling or standing is not possible for you, you may remain seated. And finally, a friendly reminder to please be aware of personal belongings while at church—we recommend you not bring valuables to church and that you never leave your purse or such unattended.

Anglicans receive on the tongue or in the right hand palm, and by guiding the chalice to their lips. If you do not intend to receive, you may instead come up for a blessing—simply cross your arms over your chest.
