The Last Sunday after the Epiphany Quinquagesima

February 19, 2023

8:00a Low Mass and 10:30a Sung Mass

We welcome all who may be visitors this morning, and we hope you will come again to worship God here with us.

Today is the Last Sunday after the Epiphany. This Sunday is traditionally also called Quinquagesima (Latin for “fiftieth”), referring to the symbolic number of days before Easter. In these final weeks of the Epiphany season we prepare to enter the period of repentance and fasting called Lent.

Liturgical Notes

St. Paul's liturgy comes from the Anglican Service Book, a worship book that draws on the best of the 1928 and 1979 Books of Common Prayer. Noted as ASB in the bulletin, you can find copies of this black bound book in your pew rack to follow along as we worship.

If kneeling or standing is not possible for you, you may remain seated. And finally, a friendly reminder to please be aware of personal belongings while at church—we recommend you not bring valuables to church and that you never leave your purse or such unattended.
