The Feast of the Most Holy Trinity

June 4, 2023

8:00a Low Mass and 10:30a Sung Mass

We welcome all who may be visitors this morning, and we hope you will come again to worship God here with us.

Today is the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, commonly called Trinity Sunday. We celebrate the revelation of one God in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; the guarding of this teaching in the Church; and the invitation through Christ to enter into the divine life of the Trinity.

Liturgical Notes

St. Paul's liturgy comes from the Anglican Service Book (ASB), a worship book that draws on the best of the 1928 and 1979 Books of Common Prayer. You can find copies of this black bound book in your pew rack to follow along as we worship.

If kneeling or standing is not possible for you, you may remain seated. And finally, a friendly reminder to please be aware of personal belongings while at church—we recommend you not bring valuables to church and that you never leave your purse or such unattended.

Presider Blessed art thou, Lord God, King of the Universe. Through thy goodness we have this bread to offer: grain of the earth and work of human hands. It will become for us the Body of Christ.

People Blessed be God forever.

Presider Blessed art thou, Lord God, King of the Universe. Through thy goodness we have this wine to offer: fruit of the vine and work of human hands. It will become for us the Cup of Salvation.

People Blessed be God forever.

Presider Pray, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable unto God the Father Almighty.

People May the Lord accept this sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his Name, for our good, and the good of all his holy Church.

Presider Mass Intentions ... May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace,

People And rise in glory. Amen.

Communion (sit)

Cantor Let us bless the God of heaven; and in the sight of all living will we give thanks unto him: because he hath done to us-ward after his loving kindness.

All baptized Christians who have been admitted to Holy Communion, are repentant of their sins, and believe in the real presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament are welcome to receive Communion. Anglicans receive on the tongue or in the right hand palm, and by guiding the chalice to their lips. If you do not intend to receive, you may instead come up for a blessing—simply cross your arms over your chest.
